

Having had extensive experience with radio frequency leakage and interference, I predict BPL will constitute devastating interference to amateur radio communications which have traditionally respected and protected. On this basis I am opposed approval of the broadband powerline proposals.